

BC FED Young Workers' School at Camp Jubilee - Registration Now Open

Are you a young worker 30 years and younger who wants to get more involved in your union, the labour movement, and the social justice work unions are involved in?

Registration for the BC Federation of Labour's Annual Young Workers' School is now open. It is a weekend school held at Camp Jubilee in Indian Arm in the Lower Mainland. Participants will attend courses to help them build skills related to the labour movement, political and community organizing, and leadership skills. In addition to coursework, attendees will be able to participate in a variety of outdoor activities and connect with other young workers from around the province.

Deadline for registration with the BC FED is August 25, 2017. For more information about the conference, visit <http://conference.bcfed.ca/youngworkersschool/>

HSA will support up to five members, by covering registration and travel costs, to attend the annual Young Workers' School. To apply for HSA support to attend, please send a 150 word statement on why you'd like to attend and what you hope to gain from this experience. Please send via email attachment to ccampbell@hsabc.org

Deadline for submissions is August 18, 2017. Thank you.
